

RMBL Tuesday Night Seminar Schedule

8 PM in the Enders Dining Hall

June 15 - Chris Floyd - RMBL and University of Wisconsin Eau Claire

>>> “Factors determining nest site selection by a keystone engineer: the red-naped sapsucker”

June 22 - Tom Mitchell-Olds - RMBL and Duke University

>>> “Natural variation for insect resistance: molecular evolution and ecological consequences”

June 29 - Ken Whitney - RMBL and Rice University

>>> “Evolutionary and genetic factors influencing species invasions”

July 6 - Maruxa Alvarez - RMBL and Universidad de Vigo, Spain

>>> “Do algae care about the presence of predatory fish?”

July 13 - Thomas R. Crow and Todd Mowrer - US Forest Service

>>> “Current and long-term US Forest Service Research in the Interior West”

July 20 - Beth Lynch - RMBL and Luther College

>>> “Vegetation and fire history of a sand plain landscape in northern Wisconsin”

July 27 - Steve Emslie - University of North Carolina Wilmington

>>> “High-elevation vertebrate communities and climate change since the Ice Ages in the Upper Gunnison Basin, Colorado”

August 3 - No seminar - ESA meetings

August 10 - Carol Boggs- RMBL and Stanford University

>>> “Dynamics of an introduced population of Gillette's checkerspot butterfly”